Aliah University is offering Vocational Training Programme under MSDP funding, Ministry of Minority Affairs, and Government of India. Applications are invited from candidates belonging to minority communities residing in the One Hundred Five (105) Blocks of Sixteen (16) Districts of West Bengal in Fifty Five (55) different courses, who are school/college dropouts (or who cannot afford their higher education due to poor economic background). A District-wise list of approved Training Providers, courses and other details are given on the website www.aliah.ac.in. Under this programme, 100% of the course fee will be borne by the Government of India. Candidates will have to deposit their original marksheet of the qualifying examinations at the time of admission. The same will be returned after the completion of the course. Alternatively the candidates will pay 5% of the course fee at the time of admission and the same will be returned after successful completion of the course. Interested candidates are requested to submit online application form through Aliah University's website www.aliahcvsadmissions.com. Candidates are requested to see the website for courses centre wise and Block wise or visit approved Vocational Training Providers for on-line submission of application form.

Note: The date for online submission of application form is from 25th February, 2015 to 6th March, 2015 and it is free of cost.
